

SVAM International Inc has been retained by one of its Client located in Long Island to identify and hire an HR Executive for their office located in Jericho Long Island.

The client is looking for an Experienced HR Professional with the proven ability to thrive in a fast-paced, high growth environment. The person should be Skilled in recruitment, benefits administration performance management, , employee relations, engagement and retention, training and development, and succession planning.

Salary will commensurate with experience. Please reply with your profile to mike@svam.com